The Shrine of the Black Madonna Sanctuary is a charitable, non-profit organization formed for the purpose of serving low-income and marginalized families in Goochland, Virginia with a focus on the Black community. The Shrine of the Black Madonna Sanctuary offers a great opportunity to demonstrate and apply the principles of justice and practice positive virtues in an effort to develop self, team, and the Black community. As with any viable organization, its forward march involves ongoing evolution and change. The Shrine of the Black Madonna Sanctuary intends to be more than symbolic, but a force for truth, justice and harmony in our community.
